Our mission

Islington is a place rich with diversity and culture. As a council our sense of purpose couldn't be clearer: we serve. It's in the logo. We are committed to challenging inequality in the borough and as one of the largest employers we know that to look after the place and the planet, we have to look after our people. Together we can change the future.

To do this, everyone who works at Islington Council lives by a set of values which guide us in everything that we do: collaborative, ambitious, resourceful, and empowering. They spell out 'CARE', which is what we think public service is all about.

Overview of the role

The Prosecution and Licensing Lawyer is responsible for enforcing regulatory compliance and legal standards, often within local government or regulatory bodies. You will prosecute offences such as environmental breaches, fraud, trading standards violations, or licensing infringements. The role includes preparing legal cases, advising enforcement teams, and representing the authority in court. On the licensing side, you will assist in the Council's handling of applications, advise and advocate at Committee hearings and deal with appeals related to alcohol, late night refreshment, entertainment, taxis, and other regulated activities. You will possess strong advocacy, negotiation, and legal drafting skills are essential. This role ensures public safety and legal compliance through fair and effective legal processes.

Key responsibilities

At PO4 grade:

- Manage a substantial personal caseload of licensing and prosecution matters, including providing legal advice and drafting comprehensive documents, such as pleadings, witness statements and instructions to Counsel, and offering specialised expertise in your field.
- To conduct litigation covering civil, regulatory crime and public law including the advocacy in connection with those cases.
- Stay current with developments in relevant areas of law and inform the Principal Lawyer about any implications for the team's work.
- Advise on the Council's powers and decision-making processes, ensuring the legality of its decisions and risk mitigation.
- Act as an advocate for the Council in relevant courts, tribunals, and inquiries, and instruct Counsel to represent the Council when necessary.
- Contribute to the efficient operation of the team and Legal Services as a cohesive unit, fostering collaboration and supporting colleagues to achieve shared goals.
- Responsive to client needs and ensures that work reflects best practices and meets performance targets outlined in Service Level Agreements.
- Input data and utilise the case management system for reporting purposes. Provide regular updates on caseload status to clients, internal partners, colleagues, and management.
- Achieve the chargeable hours target for the position and meet the performance and quality standards set by the Legal Service Management Team.

At PO5 grade: all of the duties at PO4 and in addition to:

- Draft reports, comment on, and prepare legal implications for reports to the Council, its relevant committees and subcommittees, the Executive, and other member and officer-level meetings, and attend these meetings as a representative of Legal Services as needed.

- Handle corporate complaints and respond to enquiries from Members, ensuring timely and effective resolution.
- Contribute to developing policy and good practice within the postholder's area of responsibility.
- To assist with client liaison including being proactive in forward planning for service requirements and facilitate with training needs.
- To manage a substantial and complex caseload and offer proactive advice in regulatory law covering licensing and prosecutions.

At PO6 grade – all the duties at PO4/PO5 plus the below:

- Assist the Principal Lawyer in managing the Corporate Litigation and Compliance Team acting as a deputy as and when required.
- Assist with supervision junior members of the Corporate Litigation and Compliance Team.
- In dealing with the most high-risk or sensitive cases, you will make sound judgments on case progression based on all the evidence and identify areas of risk to client officers and the Legal Senior Management Team ensure that high risk cases are entered into the Legal Services Risk Register.
- To draft complex instructions to counsel on the most high-risk or sensitive cases.
- You will apply strategic thinking for the Legal Services team which adopts best practice, making recommendations on any changes in policy or practice as and when appropriate. Proactive in your approach, you will seek out solutions rather than provide advice or support compliance as a default, acting as a role model for colleagues to adopt a similar way of working.

Compliance

Ensure adherence to legal, regulatory, and policy requirements under GDPR, Health and Safety, Employee Code of Conduct and in your area of expertise by identifying opportunities and risks, and escalating issues as necessary.

Person specification

Your application form needs to demonstrate how you fulfil the role's requirements. It is essential to address the criteria, as this will be used to evaluate your suitability for the position.
